1. INTRODUCTION

People live in this world of course, have their own personality which different among other. The differences personality of every person can be affected by the range of that person. The term "personality" comes from the Latin word "persona" which means mask or mask, which is a face mask that is often used by stage performers, which is meant to illustrate behavior, character, or person. For the Greeks, "persona" means how someone looks at other people. Personality is a characteristic of someone that causes the consistency of feelings, thoughts and behavior. According to Gordon Allport's (1897) personality is defined as the dynamic organization of an individual's psychophysical system that determines its adaptation to the environment. In this case, Clay Jensen's personality is like any of us, but the feelings of regrets can change him into something else. Regret is a commonly experienced aversive emotional outcome of "bad" decisions that is intricately tied to decision-making. (Olivia Pethtel, Yiwei Chen. Journal. 2014)

Theory and research have emphasized the impact of life events about Regrets and also about Bullying, bullying in particular, has taken a great toll on the equality of friendship. It is clear that bullying can blind the life of many students who experience it, while those students who get away with bullying others are learning values at odds with any proper preparation for citizenship. According to Olweus (1993) bullying that is happening near Clay is a negative action on the part of one or more other students and that is kind of violence can happen physically or psychologically (Perdew, 2015). The fact that Bullying is happening in front of Clay, he didn't seem to have any intentions on preventing it, and by the time, it's too late, rather Clay is free from any responsibility, or living a life with an enormous regret.

So, the researcher will analyze and it will be presented in the research paper entitled: THE EFFECTS OF BULLYING AND CLAY JENSEN'S REGRET IN THE MOVIE 13 REASONS WHY SEASON 1 (2017): A SOCIOLOGICAL ANALYSIS

The technique used for analyzing the data is qualitative analysis that consists of three phases namely data reduction, data display, and drawing conclusions (Miles and Huberman, 1994: 11).

03/eps.4/22.00/verbal

In this situation, Hannah experiences bullying when Tyler tries to tail her silently, or in other words Tyler as a stalker. He tried to find out her personal things, and took photos of Hannah in secret, initially Hannah did not know if it was Tyler, but after Hannah tried to trap the stalker with Courtney, finally discovered that the stalker was Tyler. 3.1.1.2 Gestural Abuse

07/eps.7/25.40/Gestural

In this situation, Hannah felt lonely, because she felt ignored by her friends at school, especially Zach. At first Hannah felt Zach had stolen Hannah's praise sentences in the class, because Zach had been rejected by Hannah.

The sentences in the stolen letter are very meaningful for Hannah, because only the sentences in the missing letter are able to comfort the lonely Hannah. Hannah then gave Zach a piece of letter that contained how meaningful the words of praise were to her, but Zach even more ignored her. That was a gestural abuse because there was ignorance there.

That was a sexual harassment because there was a touching on the intimate part there.

04/eps.4/43.00/Sexual

The bullying experienced by Hannah in this section is in the form of exciting photos spread by Tyler. Even though it's just slander. Once when Hannah and Courtney wanted to find out who was the stalker who had been trailing Hannah secretly, they planned to trap the stalker at Hannah's house, but both of them were drunk and did a game, but unconsciously they do intimate scenes, when Courtney about to kiss Hannah, the stalker appeared and took a picture of the two of them, they were shocked and Hannah immediately took a firing light then directed it to the stalker, apparently there was Tyler, then Tyler spread photos of Hannah and Courtney's exciting at school. That was a sexual harassment because there was Spreading rumors about someone's sexual activities there.

05/eps.5/34.48/ Sexual

In this section, Hannah is rumored that she is a lesbian, because her indecent photos with Courtney are spread by Tyler. But there Hannah was rumored that in the photo was her and Laura, not her with Courtney. The one who spread the rumor or slander was Courtney, she did it because she was embarrassed, afraid and she did not want to be rumored with Hannah. That was a sexual harassment because there was Spreading rumors about someone's sexual activities there.

06/eps.6/41.10/ Sexual

At Hannah's school, there is a tradition on Valentine's Day. School conducted a survey to find the ideal valentine partner. Students who are interested in joining can register and then fill out the survey within a certain time period. If the results come out later, names will be calculated according to the survey results. Hannah followed it, and it turns out the Hannah's name appeared in the survey results of Marcus. Then Marcus invited Hannah on a date when Valentine's Day arrived. Marcus made Hannah wait for an hour at the restaurant, but Hannah continued to wait until Marcus arrived. Marcus was surprised because Hannah wanted to wait that long, it made Marcus think that Hannah was an easy woman. Marcus sat next to Hannah, then he began to grope Hannah's thigh, and wanted to kiss Hannah, but Hannah refused and pushed Marcus until he fell from the chair. That was a sexual harassment because there was a touching on the intimate part there.

08/eps.7/32.45/ Sexual

Hannah followed a group of poets at her school. There she began to get along with Ryan. One day, Hannah showed Ryan the poems or writings of her work. There is a poem that is quite interesting according to Ryan, Ryan urges Hannah to publish her poem, but Hannah refuses because she feels that the meaning in the poem is very vulgar and intimate, the context in the poem is also a personal experience of Hannah. But without Hannah's knowledge, Ryan took the poem and published it in a magazine that he managed. After the magazine was published and the children at school read Hannah's poetry, she felt embarrassed and angry, because they guessed which prostitute wrote it, and even some children realized that it was Hannah's writing. That was a sexual harassment because there was a spreading about someone's sexual things there.

Then in the evening Hannah tried to walk around her neighbourhood to cheer herself up, but going too far, not realizing she arrived at Bryce's house, apparently there was a party being held, Hannah met Bryce, Jessica, Justin and other friends. Then she joined Jessica and friends in a pool of warm water, Hannah enjoyed it and felt calmer, after a while Jessica and other friends entered the house to change clothes, stay Hannah alone in the pool, suddenly Bryce approached Hannah and entered into the pool, the quiet atmosphere made Bryce desperate to approach Hannah and groped Hannah, Hannah refused but Bryce was very wild and strong, until Hannah could not avoid, finally Bryce raped Hannah in the pool and Hannah could only surrender and cry. That was a sexual harassment because there was a rape there.

3.2 Discussion

After analyzing what types of bullying that Hannah's receive the Researcher can conclude that there are many types of bullying that could happen in someone's life, not just Hannah.

By this, we can keep an open mind and pay more attention to the people around us, maybe they receive this kind of bullying. What happened to Hannah was extremely unforgivable, she kept all of her burden alone, this is why she ended her life.

Bullying as we know is something that is not simple, but if it continues for some time, it can damage the person's life, and choose an extreme path that could end everything in an instant.

4. CONCLUSION

At the end, after analyzing this movie, the researcher gets information about the forms of bullying and it turns out that bullying can be fatal to one's life, it is hoped that the results of this research can be a learning point for readers and always keep away from bullying.
